Prayer for Families

Beloved angels,

Even though I sometimes feel like Life is completely out of my control, on some level I understand that I am creating my own reality.

I see myself as whole, healed, happy and at peace.

Even though it is a stretch for me at times, I see all challenges within my family unit - whether health, financial, relationship or otherwise - as a gift from God.

I see my family unit as whole, healed, happy, at peace and united as One.

Even though through the ages my family has had its patterns of struggle, I strive to reflect on my lineage with love and grace.

I see my family's story through the eyes and heart of God.

My family is whole, healed, happy, at peace and united as One.

I am whole, healed, happy and at peace.

And so it is.
